Head south on I-15 and stay on I-15 until exit 120, Manderfield.

Turn EAST off the exit and follow that road (it will curve around and start to head South.) Stay on this road until you see the retreat sign to turn left. (approx 1.5 miles off the exit.) You will then turn left and go back in almost the opposite direction. Follow all road signs for the retreat. The directions on google maps are pretty accurate as well.

Terms and Conditions of Purchases made through Radiating Essence the website or websites selling or promoting goods or services from Radiating Essence:

By purchasing goods or services from this website or any website selling coupons, gift certificates or any other type of goods or services redeemed at Radiating Essence shall be with the explicit understanding that all services are performed in accordance to Utah State laws. Customers buying goods or services understand that their purchase is for nothing more than stated on the coupon and are described as followed:

1. I (the participant) understand that Reiki, EFT (Emotional Freedom Technique), ERT (Emotional Release Technique), RET (Rapid Eye Therapy) are all simple, gentle, hands-on energy technique that is used for stress reduction and relaxation, removing blockages, changes beliefs, and many other benefits. I understand that practitioners do not diagnose conditions nor do they prescribe or perform medical treatment, prescribe substances, nor interfere with the treatment of a licensed medical professional. I understand that any of these modalities do not take the place of medical care. It is recommended that I see a licensed physician or licensed health care professional for any physical or psychological ailment I may have. I understand that these modalities can complement any medical or psychological care I may be receiving. I also understand that the body has the ability to heal itself and to do so, complete relaxation is often beneficial. I acknowledge that long term imbalances in the body sometimes require multiple sessions in order to facilitate the level of relaxation needed by the body to heal itself.
2. Aromatherapy: This modality consists of usage of essential oils to compliment healing techniques performed at Radiating Essence. You may ask to have these omitted if you would like.
3. Thetahealing: This modality was developed by the founders listed on <http://www.thetahealing.com/> and all certifications are kept active and in good standing by Radiating Essence and comply with Thetahealing terms and conditions. See <http://www.thetahealing.com/> for more information.
4. Traditional Therapeutic Massage: All traditional therapeutic massages performed by Radiating Essence comply to all government rules and regulations. Ethics and standards set forth by the state can be found on <http://utah.gov>. These rules and regulations are kept in the highest regard and anyone asking any employee or persons associated with Radiating Essence to not comply with these rules and regulations will be banned from further patronage at Radiating Essence, as well, but not limited to, having the proper criminal authorities alerted, and/or civilly pursued in a court of law.

2. Any sexual advances, references, etc.

Coupons:

No refunds will be given after a coupon is purchased unless the coupon site allows it. No coupon refunds will be given by Radiating Essence due to the fact that coupon sites take a 50% commission.

Except in extreme circumstances, no refunds will be given after services are rendered. If you are unsure what type of service you are purchasing, please don't purchase until you have talked to someone at Radiating Essence to clarify services. Massages are not like oil changes- even though every car is different, changing the oil is still the same. With massages, or energy work, each practitioner has their own style. There are no laws to say what we "have" to do, only what we "cannot do" so please ask all your questions prior to scheduling a session or purchasing a coupon.

All efforts are made to make prompt refunds but Radiating Essence reserves the right to process a refund for up to 90 days. We reserve the right, at any time, to not refund a client.

In the event that a refund is given, upon receipt you are agreeing to consider the matter settled in full with no further action of any type (legal or civil or otherwise.)

If you are in a session and you are not sure about something, please ask. You will never offend a massage therapist or energy practitioner for asking questions about your session. It's YOUR session and we would like to help you feel that you got what you paid for! Be clear about what you are paying for and about what you are receiving.

You (the participant/client) also agree that if you are participating in any classes or retreats (i.e. Personal Abundance Retreat) that you agree to hold harmless any practitioner/staff of Radiating Essence for any personal injury that might occur while participating in said classes or retreats. During these classes Radiating Essence and staff will never ask you to perform a physical task out of your comfort level or ability. Most classes/retreats consist of meditation, walks, short hikes, etc. No physically strenuous activities are required of any participant. You also agree to abide by all rules and restrictions listed on <http://radiatingessence.com> in reference to your particular class or retreat, or listed at the time of coupon purchase (if using a daily deal coupon purchased from a third party site.) By signing this document you agree to all terms and conditions listed here and on aforementioned websites. This is including, but not limited to possession of firearms during the retreat.
